Vice Admiral Ralph L. Shifley
United States Navy
Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Logistics)

Vice Admiral Ralph L. Shifley, USN, Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Logistics), graduated from the Naval Academy with the rank of Ensign on June 2, 1933. He earned his "wings" and became a naval aviator on November 17, 1937.

During the period July 1933 until December 1936, he served at sea in the cruisers MEMPHIS and ASTORIA, and after flight training served in the aviation unit of the cruiser SAVANNAH, and subsequently had duty as her senior aviator.

At the outbreak of World War II, he was an instructor at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, and was then assigned to the Naval Air Gunner's School as Executive Officer and then as Air Gunnery Training Officer on the staff of Chief of Naval Air Operational Training.

In June 1943, he assumed command of Bombing Squadron EIGHT, and later served as commanding officer of Air Group EIGHT. For ... "extraordinary heroism as pilot of a fighter plane and Commander, Air Group EIGHT, attached to the USS BUNKER HILL ..... in the first Battle of the Philippine Sea ....." he was awarded the Navy Cross. He was four times awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and three times awarded the Air Medal, and is entitled to the ribbon for the Presidential Unit Citation awarded the USS BUNKER HILL.

During the last eight months of the war he served as Superintendent of Aviation Training at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, followed by sea duty tours in the aircraft carriers RANDOLPH and LEYTE.

Admiral Shifley served on the staff of Commander Air Force, Atlantic Fleet, and completed the Naval War College course in June 1952. He was then assigned to the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations and later served as Deputy Chief of Staff to Commander, SIXTH Fleet, in the Mediterranean.

As a Captain, he also served in various staffs and was commanding officer of the attack aircraft carrier FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT and in 1959 was assigned as Assistant Director of the Aviation Plans Division, Office of the Chief of Naval Operations.

He was selected for the rank of Rear Admiral and served in key positions of the Navy Department in that grade. Promoted to the rank of Vice Admiral on September 1, 1967, he then assumed his present duties as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Logistics).

Other decorations and medals Vice Admiral Shifley is entitled to wear include: American Defense Service Medal, American Campaign Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal, Navy Occupation Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal with one Service Star, Vietnam Service Medal, Philippine Liberation Ribbon, and the Philippine Republic Presidential Unit Citation Badge. He was also decorated by the Spanish government and is entitled to wear their Naval Order of Merit, Third Class.
