C209 and K095

The Recruit Training Command, Orlando, welcomes you to the weekly Recruit Graduation Review. This review climaxes basic training and affords the recruits an opportunity to demonstrate with pride the military skills, teamwork and individual self-reliance acquired during this period. These men and women will soon be ordered to the Navy's operating forces both ashore and afloat and will take their places as a part of the Navy's team for peace. Your Nation and your Navy are proud of these men and women who have volunteered to serve their country.
